

Sister Rye of Côte d'Ivoire 1

Jesus showed me the principality of Islam in Mecca

In 1990, the Lord revealed Himself to me and told me, "I will take you to a place to show you a secret. What I will show you is the truth you will tell the world." Quickly the Lord lifted me up like a baby and in the twinkling of an eye He transported me to Mecca. I quickly saw that we did not end up in Mecca, but in a mountainous region where I saw hills. I said to the Lord, "Master, you said you would take me to Mecca, but what are these hills?" The Lord said to me, "My daughter, in these hills Muhammad was haunted by two spirits." Notice that the Lord was not talking about two angels, but about two spirits. And when the Lord spoke of two spirits, I wondered. The Lord said, "You ask questions and wonder. You must understand that Muhammad did not worship Me, the true God, but a false God. I show you these hills, for Muhammad was haunted by demons in these hills."

When I heard this, it broke my heart to hear this truth. I realized I was wrong. The Lord said, "In this place, demons visited Muhammad and gave him the Quran, the so-called holy book, which will compete with the Bible." Then the Lord continued to show me the tomb of Muhammad. It was opened and I saw animals there. The Lord said, "This is Muhammad's tomb, but his soul is in hell." Back then, I didn't even know what hell was. It hurt me to discover these secrets of my religion.

Then the Lord took me to Mecca. When we got there, I saw that it was huge. Honestly, the Mecca where the Kaaba is huge. I saw that Mecca is beautiful and massive. But the Lord said to me, "This is not our goal yet. I just wanted you to see it, because this is where your parents come to pray." The Lord said, "Now we must follow the path that Muslim pilgrims go to fetch the blessed water." The Lord took me to a cave where water flowed. And as we stood in front of the flowing water, the Lord opened my eyes. I didn't know what a vision or revelation was. But the Lord opened my eyes and said, "Behold!" When I looked deeper, I saw a chameleon. This was not our earthly chameleon; it was a giant demon that had the property of a chameleon. Behind this demon, I saw a two-headed python with red eyes, and I was seized with terror.

I was about to fall, but the Lord held me on my back and said, "Do not be afraid, for I have come here with you to show you a secret. I brought you here to show you the God your parents worship. I am not the God your parents worshipped because they worship something else." When the Muslim pilgrims threw stones on the water, I saw the demon chameleon collecting their stones. Finally, the Lord took me to the Kaaba. I saw that we did not touch the ground, because we were several meters above the ground.

The Lord said, "What I am about to show you now will turn your life upside down. And when you see what I am showing you here, you are going to have to make a choice. Now take a close look at the Kaaba." After I checked, I said, "Lord, I see nothing." Then the Lord rubbed my eyes three times to open my vision. Then he said, "My daughter, open your eyes and see." When I looked, I said, "Lord, I only see people revolving around the Kaaba." The Lord said, "Look again. Look closely and look deep." Beloved, when I looked again, I exclaimed, "Lord, I can see the signs of a serpent."

The Lord said, "My daughter, the time has come for you to see the God whom your parents worship." My dear, the Lord Jesus is incredibly powerful. Witches and wizards can make a demonstration because the devil can imitate the Lord, but the Lord is the Almighty. He is great. My dear, I saw how the Lord Jesus, through the tip of His finger, uprooted this structure called the Kaaba. I saw this building of the Kaaba, which is like a house that is stirred up by the power of the finger of the Lord and hung in space. It was an instant miracle. I raised my eyes to look up at the Kaaba, which was floating away from its seat and in the air. I was impressed by the power of Jesus Christ.

And I said, "Wow, the Lord really shows me who He is. How glorious and powerful he is." The Lord said to me, "Don't worry about the Kaaba. That's not the problem." I saw that even though the Lord had removed the Kaaba, people continued to move and turn around, not seeing what was under the Kaaba, which was already removed. My dear, when I looked under the foundation of the Kaaba, I saw a gigantic and huge serpent rising from the ground. He was a giant. It was located under the Kaaba and had a crown like that of the Queen of England.

And the Lord Jesus said, "My daughter, this is the God whom your parents worship. They claim to worship the true God, but they have been deceived. I am the true God. Your parents worship this serpent who is the God of Islam." My dear brethren, I saw this huge serpent turn its head towards me, and it began to talk to me. Thanks to my dialogue with this snake, I learned that my family had sold me to this snake, which was the author of its wealth. I was horrified when I saw the serpent, but the Lord whispered in my right ear and said, "Don't be afraid of anything. I am with you."

The snake watched me and said to me, "I'm glad to see you." I was amazed. I immediately felt the Lord's hand on my right shoulder. He said again, "Do not be afraid." The snake said to me, "Your parents told me you were coming to Mecca." My parents had already prepared for my pilgrimage to Mecca many years ago. It was their project. I did not know I was being handed over to the snake. Dear ones, you who are in Islam are mistaken. Allah is not the true God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I was a Muslim. But the One who revealed Himself to me and brought me to Mecca to show me the truth is Jesus Christ, the Lion of Judah, the King of kings and the Messiah, the Savior, and Almighty God.

This demonic serpent that spoke to me knew my name and my family, because the devil knows us, and he knows the kind of family we come from. This snake was a black snake that had two sharp teeth in its mouth with its poisonous tongue and talked to me. The serpent said to me, "You belong to me, because your paternal parents have given me your soul. I am your husband." I said to the snake, "What do you mean? I don't understand what you mean. Please tell me more." My brother, I spoke face to face with the Principality of Islam, which is worshipped in the name of Allah, who was this black serpent, but I was fearless because of the One who was at my right, the Lord Jesus Christ, who is stronger than the old serpent. This principality was unable to see the Lord Jesus Christ.

The serpent said to me, "Your father offered me your soul as a sacrifice and promised to do everything to take you to Mecca. Understand that you are my wife, you shall be consecrated as my bride." That old snake said to me, "My dear, I'm surprised you came before the date set by your parents. Since you were born, they have offered you to me as a sacrifice. Even though you came to Mecca before the appointed time, I am still glad you came. And I'm surprised you came before the set date."

The black serpent did not know that I was brought here by Jesus Christ. All this overwhelmed me. The black serpent, the god of Islam, said to me, "My bride, since you have come to me, I want to show you the treasure I have prepared for you." And the snake began to show me the nations of the world, the royal families, and the heads of state. He showed it to the ambassadors and the governments of the world. He showed me leaders of all tribes and all races.

This serpent said to me, "All these people are my servants, for they are in my service. And since you are my bride, all these leaders will bow before you." Then the black snake, the principality of Islam, began to show me the water. He showed me the sea and the depth of the sea, where I saw a mysterious world. I discovered that there are kingdoms under the sea. The snake showed me the land and the earth.

My dear, we all walk in the country. But under the land, the serpent showed me another world that was hidden, namely the underworld. When the serpent showed me the mountains and hills of the world, dear ones, our optical eyes see only mountains, hills, and valleys. But there are gates and portals that lead to these mountains of the world. I saw that the Islamic serpent opened a dimensional gate in the mountains and hills of the world, resulting in a mysterious world. I saw portals opening in the forests, bushes, and caves, and these gates led to a hidden dimension in Satan's world.

The serpent said to me, "All these treasures hidden from men will be yours, my bride. Even in heaven they will bow before you, for my kingdom extends to heaven." Then the serpent showed me all the people of the world, especially all Muslims and infidels, all races, and all nations. They were men, women, and children, young and old, and there were countless.

And the old serpent said to me, "All these people are mine, and they are my servants, and they will bow before you, my bride." Then the black serpent showed me England where it ruled. He showed me the Islamic world. He showed me the World Bank and his symbol was in the World Bank. I was stunned to learn that this institution belonged to him. The mark of the beast was in the World Bank.

He showed me India, Egypt, China, the Asian and Western worlds including Africa and said, "All these people will serve you, for they are mine and all the treasures are yours. Now the time has come for us to celebrate our wedding. I thank your paternal parents for making this possible." Then I saw the old snake bursting out laughing, for it was in boundless joy. He laughed with hellish love.

Then the serpent said to me, "You too will be crowned in heaven. My bride, why don't you celebrate despite all the glory I have given you? I'll show you everything, but you're not happy." I stood still and watched him. I saw the old snake lower its head and it showed me gold, treasures, jewelry, and money. He said, "All this is yours. I'll give it to you now." At that moment, I said to the snake, "Well, can I talk?" He said, "Come on, speak, I want to hear you."

I said to the snake, "You told me my parents were marrying me off to you, didn't you?" He said, "It's a fact." I said, "you told me they were marrying me off to you when I was a little kid. Isn't it?" He said, "It's the truth." I said, "You told me it was my fatherly side." The snake said, "Yes, that's right."

I said to the serpent, "Everything you have shown me, the royal family, the government of the world, the World Bank, and the leaders of the world is yours." He said, "Of course they do." I said, "You mean all the Arab countries, China, India and the whole world belong to you?" He said, "Yes, they do. And they will bow before you and serve you. I have prepared a mountain for you." As soon as the animal spoke about the mountain, I saw a hill in front of me. And I saw countless crowds of the people of the world around this mountain. The serpent said, "You will sit on this mountain, and the people of the world will bow before you and serve you. They will be yours." I said, "It's okay, and it's good. But you said that my parents married me to you when I was a child. I was not conscious. But they were conscious."

He said, "Yes. That's how it happened. You are my bride; we must have a wedding ceremony. All your parents had to do was consecrate you as my bride, and I'll do the rest." Then I said to the old serpent, the Principality of Islam: "First of all, I would like to inform you that although my parents set a date to take me to Mecca, it was not my parents who sent me here. Do you understand?"

Immediately I noticed that the queue was silent, and he was stunned. I said, "Yes, they are not. Secondly, it is my paternal parents who marry me off to you. It wasn't my choice because I was just a kid. Thirdly, I would like to inform you that I am not your wife, because I am already married." As soon as I said I was married, I saw the anger of the snake. I have never seen this anger. The old snake was angry and showed violence. The snake was wild and wild. He raged with rage and shouted, "I don't want to hear that you have a husband. I don't want to hear that."

My dear, the serpent complained violently with her hellish and solemn voice. The animal screamed and said, "I will not accept that you are married to anyone else. I don't want to hear these lies." He showed ferocity. The snake screamed and protested and said to me, "It's not what your parents told me. You are my bride, whether you like it or not." I said to the snake, "Please calm down and listen to me. You were talking here, and I listened to you calmly." I saw the snake calm down and become quiet. I said, "It's my parents who married you to me, but I'm already married."

The snake protested, "That's not true." He said, "If you were married, your parents would have told me." I said to the snake, "Do you know who I'm married to?" My dear, when I turned to the snake, I was fearless. And I had an assurance from the Lord. I was here to confront the God of Islam with an assurance. He asked me, "Who are you married to?" I said, "Do you really want to know?" He said, "Yes." I asked him three times, "Do you want to know who I'm married to?" And he said yes, three times. He asked me, "Who is your bridegroom? Whoever your bridegroom is, I will take care of him." I said, "My Bridegroom is Jesus Christ of Nazareth."

When I wanted to say the word "Nazareth," the angry snake turned its tail to beat me, but its tail killed Muslim pilgrims spinning around the Kaaba. He wanted to destroy me by force, but in the end, he killed these Muslims who came to worship him. And in 1990, more than 1,000 Muslim pilgrims lost their lives in Mecca around the Kaaba at the hands of the serpent. The incident and mass panic in which people were killed in 1990 occurred because of my encounter with the Principality of Islam.

Finally, the Lord took me on His eagle wings. I saw that I was like a baby, and he took me home. When we got home, I was no longer the size of a baby, because I regained my adult size. When I was in front of the queue, I was a normal size. But whenever the Lord carried me, I was as big as a baby.

The Lord said, "All right, I have shown you the truth about the God your Muslim parents worship. It is not I, the true God, whom they worship. You have seen the God that Muslims and your parents worship. Now you have to make a decision." When the Lord wanted to walk in this intense light, I took the tip of his robe. The Lord turned and asked me, "Why are you holding my robe?" I bowed my head and was on my knees. I said, "Lord, I will not let you go." The Lord Jesus said, "I have told you; I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. You have a choice to make." I said, "I'm not going to let you go because I've already made my choice. I have chosen you. I want to follow you and walk with you."

The Lord said, "Just as I told Abraham to come out of his father's house, I command you to come out of your father's house. Wherever you go, I will be with you. Those who fight against you, I will fight. I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse those who curse you. Whenever a house is built, there is always a cornerstone, and you are a cornerstone. Like a black ant in a black hole, even if you are in a dark place, I will be with you. If you choose to follow Me and walk with Me, you will see what I will do."

I said in my heart, "I have everything in my parents' house, but the Lord said, 'Just follow me and you will see my glory.'" The Lord said, "Rayi, it's time for me to go, I will be with you. Don't worry." Then I let go of the Lord's garment and said, "I will follow you," and the Lord disappeared.

The Hajj Stampede of 1990 is a mass panic that took place on July 2, 1990, in Mecca, Saudi Arabia. During the Hajj pilgrimage, after a collapse of the ventilation system in a 550-meter-long tunnel, there was a panic movement. This caused the suffocation and crushing that caused the deaths of 1426 Muslim pilgrims.